"I hope that this book encourages you to take off your shoes, kick off your flip-flops, or step out of your stilettos. May it remind you to touch the holy ground on which you stand." - From the introduction

We each have our own faith journey replete with stories. Some stories may be funny, tragic, uplifting, or heart wrenching. They help us to connect with God-and each other-as we journey together and share our experiences. The Barefoot Way is about our spiritual journeys. Inside you'll find an array of stories from others, from writers young and old, who have found God in the most unexpected places: a walk on the beach, a conversation with an old friend, a bus ride to school, and so much more. Walk with them, share your own story through journaling, and reflect on these experiences in this twenty-one day field guide through the realities of life.

It only takes a few minutes to step "barefoot" onto holy ground.
