A Modern Cinderella: With linked Table of Contents Louisa May Alcott

Louisa May Alcott was an American novelist best known as author of the novel 'Little Women.' In the mid-1860s, Alcott wrote passionate, fiery novels and sensational stories. She also produced wholesome stories for children, and after their positive reception, she did not generally return to creating works for adults. Alcott continued to write until her death. In this collection of four short stories, Alcott tells tales about ordinary young people developing romances based on common interests, and sinners converted to good people. Funny and touching, these stories are guaranteed to reach the hearts of the young of any age.
