Knights of Justice: The Birth Ricky Ford

Three young men each receive a Super Power they didn't ask for or want.

Benny Peabody was just an extremely intelligent fifteen year-old boy doing an ordinary job in the school holidays. He worked as a tea-boy, and cleaner on a building site. When delivering a blueprint he fell from the forty-third floor, and landed on his feet, without a scratch. His Father told him about his Ancestors, and the gift he had inherited. It was a gift of wings that would change his life forever.

Brian Osborne was working the night-shift at a chemical plant. One night as he was doing his rounds, he fell into a vat of toxic chemicals, and then fell against the electricity meters. After spending weeks in hospital, he recovered fully. He was generously compensated for his accident and bought a new car and a house. Whilst cooking his breakfast he had a nasty accident with a carving knife, and discovered that the episode at the Chemical Plant had left him with a super-power.

William Dobbs was a disabled orphan who was adopted by an English Aristocrats, Lord and Lady Bambury. They were devoted to him and gave him the best of everything that money could buy. At the age of twenty he needed to be independent, so moved into a purpose built house that was a birthday gift from his adopted Parents. After a while he started to have strange dreams about his Birth Parents, who told him that he would inherit an extraordinary gift that would make him the strongest man on earth. He pushed the dreams aside, thinking that it could never happen to him, because he couldn't even stand on his own two legs. Then one day, he did.
