CAPTIVE!

Ella Mae Campbell traveled west with her family in a wagon train in 1860. But she never made it to Denver City with them. During a terrifying attack on the wagon train, young Ella Mae was taken captive by marauding Indians. No one thought she would survive—or would want to after her ordeal. But survive she did, only to find that hardship would not end with her freedom. After she was rescued, she found, like so many other captives, that she was shunned by the very settlers who organized the search party for her. Ella Mae's determination and endurance would be put to the test, but she would never say die. No matter what!
