Almost Married (Harlequin comics) Darcy Maguire

Cassie Winters gave up on marrying for love after her parents, who she'd always thought were passionately in love with each other, got a divorce. Instead, she's decided to marry a man compatible with her. on paper, but for whom she feels nothing. But the morning after her bachelorette party, she finds herself naked in a strange bed...alongside a man she's never met before! Now she's stuck on a cruise with this stranger she can't even remember spending the night with. While she tries to avoid him, she finds it difficult to ignore her growing feelings for him. Will her feelings about marriage keep her from falling for this man, or will she follow her heart and risk making the same mistake her parents did?
