Create Your Own Adventure Picture Book: Deep in the Forest Paula Gayle Smith

This is an interactive book will allows your child to choose the story options to create his/her own adventure. This book was written to inspire a love of reading, as well as to ignite your child's imagination. With hundreds of choice combinations, the possibilities are almost endless.

This first book is about a walk in the forest.

To make the experience more educational try some of these:

1. Ask questions - who? what? where? when? why?
2. Discuss with your child the differences between the real and the make- believe.
3. Discuss the probability of this animal or thing being in the forest.
4. Discuss safety issues when dealing with animals or away from home.

Some options were added deliberately to spark the silly side of your child's imagination.
