Women desire to be accepted for who they are. However, many of us are afraid of showing our true selves. In a society that praises beauty, accomplishment, and wealth, it seems we will never be good enough unless we appear to "have it all."

Hiding behind the Lipstick will help women combat the pressures of superficiality to discover their passions, pleasures, and purposes. As Myesha leads them to a place of renewal, readers will understand the benefits of being honest with themselves and each other.

With everyday examples of women clinging to false identities, overwhelming expectations, and nagging lies, Hiding Behind the Lipstick opens the door for candid, life-changing conversations about life, love, and the masks that we all wear.
