The Messenger Edmund Kwaw

According to an ancient prophecy, Lucifer sends a mysterious and shadowy man, known to his followers only as the Messenger, to bring about his return at an appointed time. The objective of the Messenger is total world domination - of all but those bowing to Lucifer's rule. To bring about the return of Lucifer, the Messenger has to harness the powers of a child who is born under a particular astrological configuration. This child, coincidentally, is the only person who, at a particular time, is able to recognize the real demonic nature of the mysterious Messenger.

Thus, the messenger must keep his identity a secret, search for and identify this child, and then kidnap the child before the child is able to disclose his real nature. Against the shadowy Messenger and his cult of satanists are a group of friends, led by a blind priest, who know of the prophecy; and a man, who - although sceptical, is, according to the prophecy, destined to be the protector of the child. Not only must the group of friends search for and locate this angelic child, and his pre-ordained protector, they must also ultimately protect the child from an enemy, the shadowy Messenger, whose identity is unknown to them. There is a race against time to prevent the calamitous consequences of a world ruled by Lucifer.
