El asedio a la modernidad (Spanish Edition) Juan José Sebrelli

Hay en la obra de Juan José Sebrelli, más allá de la diversidad de los temas, una constante, una sorprendente continuidad. En esta nueva obra, ambiciosa y de madura reflexión, Sebrelli encara la síntesis de los problemas que lo han obsesionado en los últimos treinta años. Los analiza ahora desde una perspectiva originalísima, a la que contribuyen sin duda los cambios experimentados por el mundo, por el país y por el mismo. El asedio a la modernidad es una apasionante y apasionada revisión crítica de las ideas predominantes en la segunda mitad del siglo XX. A partir de hilos constructores hábilmente detectados por el autor, a través de marcas y huellas que señalan la semejanza o diferencia, aparecen unidas corrientes de pensamiento tan distintas a primera vista como el existencialismo heideggeriano, Nietzsche, el estructuralismo, las filosofías críticas de la historia, la antropología culturalista, el funcionalismo, el psicoanálisis junguiano y lacaniano, el posestructuralismo, la reconstrucción, el posmodernismo. La abundancia de información, la coherencia metodológica y la originalidad de los planteos estimulan la lectura e instigan en algunos casos a la polémica. Sebrelli no teme desdecirse, autocriticarse, romper con el pasado; si no es complaciente consigo mismo, tampoco lo es con el lector, a quien no trata de halagar.
