The tradition of planting on Tu B'Shevat, the Jewish New Year for trees, is handed down from generation to generation in this warm tale. Using a shovel “shiny and new,” a little boy and his grandpa plant a seed “with a green curlicue.” Like the tiny seed, this rhyming tale grows and blossoms into a celebration of nature and of family. The story culminates years later when the little boy, now a grandfather, plants a seed with a grandchild of his own. Included are ten great ways to enhance your Tu B'Shevat celebration.

This is a fixed-format ebook, which preserves the design and layout of the original print book.
