One Woman & Everlasting Life Charles Burton

Getting herself kidnapped by fanatical religious hypocrites after they caught her in the wrong bed was not how she meant to start the day. But her nasty early morning surprise took another drastic turn when the trap set by her tormentors sprang, catching them instead. Little did they know that they had hauled her in before the one and only person who could, would and did change her status from ruined wreckage to new life with new confidence and brand new vision. Genuine hope, refreshing inspiration and interesting reading join together in this informative volume. Based on the brief but intense story of the woman caught in adultery from the Gospel of John, this volume connects us with solid Bible truth and inexhaustible spiritual wealth for fruitful living today. Power, love and secure sanity await you, and the meaning of the phrase "In Christ" comes easily within reach—here and now. This volume presents the astounding supremacy of Jesus Christ with easy-to-grasp clarity, meant to bring you nothing less than an abundant, well-lived life. Woman transformed, assembly amazed, villains evicted, and all with no one getting hurt. In fact, Jesus of Nazareth barely lifted a finger when He drove her tormentors away. People, places and politics surrounding Jesus of Nazareth bring the story off the page and into real life. Find out what was going on behind the scenes that you won't want to miss. Enjoy a wealth of insight as Bible truths come through with clear meaning and practical application. Fine for enrichment reading, personal devotions, as well as group Bible study. Vivid, relevant and life changing.
