Suffocated 2 David Tognoni

When the judge asked me (David Tognoni) if I had any questions for the witness (Patricia Tognoni) I said, "Yes I do". My question to Pat was, "How did you suffocate Wes? Did you use your hand or a plastic bag?" The entire courtroom erupted. With the pound of the gavel, I heard, "Four months in county jail for contempt of court". "But your honor I have my 17-year-old son Gary at home that I am taking care of" I told the judge. The jailer was handcuffing me again as the courtroom cleared, all except the judge, the jailer and me. "You are participating in extortion," I told the judge. Now, I really did have contempt for the court on my face and the judge motioned to the jailer to get me out of there. BACK IN JAIL AGAIN! "Suffocated: The True Story of Wes Tognoni's Suffocation" released on Amazon March 29, 2012 tells the story from the time I first was introduced to my ex-wife, until April 1997 when I was released from being held in Tent City in Phoenix for six-and-a-half months. "Suffocated 2: The American War on Fathers and Family" is my continued story of having to deal with my ex, and the government interference, with Wes and my other children used as pawns by their mother. This is a first-hand look from a father's perspective at the self-absorbed prevarications and destruction of family caused by MBP.
