La mia brillante carriera (Raggi) (Italian Edition) Miles Franklin

Appassionata, volitiva e indomita, Sybylla Melvyn è una delle eroine più affascinanti della letteratura australiana. Piena di talento, dalla mente vivace e curiosa, la sedicenne Sybylla si sente in trappola nella fattoria dei genitori nell'entroterra australiano. Pur amando la vita nel bush, detesta la durezza e le fatiche fisiche che questa comporta. Il suo desiderio è poter coltivare i suoi talenti e il suo amore per la scrittura e i libri, il pensiero, la musica, ma soprattutto aspira a una vita dagli orizzonti aperti, ricca delle promesse di un grande futuro. La sua voglia di indipendenza si scontra con la mentalità misogina della società intorno a lei, che vede per una ragazza due sole opportunità: sposarsi o insegnare. Improvvisamente però tutto cambia e la ragazza viene mandata a vivere nella proprietà di sua nonna, dove viene corteggiata dal ricco e affascinante proprietario terriero Harry Beecham che le propone di sposarlo. Sybylla, pur attratta dall'uomo, si troverà a dover scegliere tra una vita convenzionale e i suoi piani per una "brillante carriera".
