In Lost and Found, Robert L. Millet provides a fascinating and thorough look at the powerful parable of the prodigal son. The book includes rich historical detail and invaluable cultural background, as well as a verse-by-verse (sometimes phrase-by-phrase) commentary that enables the reader to fully understand the parable. It outlines in memorable fashion how this New Testament story helps us better understand the plan of salvation and identifies ten vital life lessons that can be gleaned from the parable.

In describing his work on this book, Brother Millet observed, 'I have been stunned and humbled by this timeless and timely message.
