El sueño de Damocles (Nuevos Tiempos) (Spanish Edition) Fatos Kongoli

El sueño de Damocles es la historia de una locura. También es una hermosa tragedia de amor que nos zambulle en los oscuros recovecos de la realidad albanesa. Una recreación en clave contemporánea de la historia de Romeo y Julieta; como escenario, la Tirana de los años noventa donde las mafias dominan todas las esferas sociales, y la corrupción y la miseria se perpetúan sin visos de esperanza. El joven Ergys, estudiante de Literatura, trabaja como camarero en el café-bar Pacífico donde conoce a Linda, una pintora de la que se enamora perdidamente: un amor prohibido porque, durante la época de la dictadura, la familia de la chica estaba al lado de los verdugos, y la familia de Ergys en el de los reprimidos. Comienza entonces para Ergys un verdadero descenso a los infiernos donde los instantes de delirio y lucidez se suceden, donde pasado y presente se mezclan. Rodeado de alucinaciones, acosado por el terrible fantasma de un Damocles que hace pender sobre él su amenazante espada, Ergys decide quitarse la vida. Antes del acto final, emprende la tarea de dejar la confesión escrita, en descarnados retazos, de la serie de acontecimientos que le han arrastrado a tomar esa terrible decisión.
