Finding God in Sin City: A Woman's Journey From Losing it All to Finding Life's True Riches

Lynette Quintanilla

How do you find the courage to start over again when life takes an unexpected twist?

Each of us face seasons of doubt, disappointment, even destruction. But why do some struggle where others find the strength and courage to move past their place of pain to discover a new and beautiful view of life that's often just over the horizon?

This inspiring book may provide just the boost you're looking for.

The author shares her journey from Miss Oregon pageant winner and successful politician to the subject of an arrest warrant facing eighteen years in state prison. Through years of legal wrangling, a depleted bank account, stained reputation - even thoughts of suicide, a hope, a perspective and a growing faith emerged.

Finding God in Sin City offers compassionate insight that will help you:

- See how even a catastrophe can lead to positive life change
- Embrace new truths and insight that can be the secret to your future success
- Learn the power and peace that comes through forgiveness
- Help you expose the destructive attitudes that can cripple your future growth and rob you of much-needed joy.
