“I started to get that queasy feeling again (always trust your stomach; it never lies). This time it was telling me there was something weird about the way larks in the trees kept darting from stand to stand and how the once cacophonous crickets were no longer making a single chirp. That’s when we saw them: a wall of bodies standing by the wire fence...Once you see one zombie, you just know there are always a lot more where they came from.”

On a dark country road somewhere in the Adirondacks, the Renegades from Harbinger—

Peter, Faith, Torque, Kris, and Flamingo—slam their car into what they think is a wandering, wayward animal. What they discover is far worse. In a field not far from the car, a human teenager lies prone in the ground. But is he dead? Or undead? What the team discovers next will chill your bones as the psiots we all know and love go up against their toughest test yet:

Project Rising Spirit is somehow alive again!

And so begins the latest installment of the beloved bestselling Harbinger series. Think Harbinger by way of Walking Dead. Gabe Guarente’s Renegades Vs. Zombies is good to the last drop of blood...and then some.
