Charlotte White falls in love with a younger Romanian coach when they work together at a gymnastics academy.

Andrei Antonescu is a sexy and handsome foreigner who loves to have fun and flirt with the ladies.

The more she gets to know him, the more red flags are unfurled. Andrei is prone to erratic communications, self-absorption and reveals a split personality. She never knows if she'll be flirted with or insulted. Blaming herself, she doesn't understand that he's a narcissist. Once she's able to see past his good looks and muscular body, Charlotte is unprepared for some shocking revelations.

Contains some graphic language and sexual content.
