Suretés et garanties au Grand-Duché de Luxembourg (Vademecum) (French Edition) Antoine R. Cuny de la Verrère

Le droit Luxembourgeois offre une vaste palette de mécanismes juridiques pour protéger les intérêts des créanciers : gages, hypothèques, caution, compensation, covenants, fiducie, dérivés, assurances, legal opinion, dation en paiement, quasi-sûretés....

Leurs règles spécifiques de formation et d'exécution résultent, cependant, tant des textes de droit que des décisions de justice et des pratiques de marché. Aussi, leur appréhension respective apparaît-elle souvent comme délicate quoiqu'indispensable pour la conclusion des transactions.

Afin de donner une vue globale, il importe de présenter, de façon synthétique, les différentes modalités juridiques et pratiques, tout en les comparant avec celles des droits voisins (belge, français, allemand, anglais).

Cet ouvrage, le premier exclusivement consacré aux garanties au Grand-Duché, constitue un outil indispensable pour tout praticien ou étudiant souhaitant se repérer dans un environnement juridique complexe en perpétuelle évolution.
