NOTE: Please note that this book is in not in the English language; it is an Irish-language work only. A mountaineering team and a camera crew on Everest. Tensions between father and son. The lack of trust between them does not augur well. Mike has technical skills to share with his son, Liam, who is on time out from school to travel to Tibet. He becomes friendly with the Sherpas, and one young Rai in particular who works in the Base Camp. Exhilaration and terror, tragedy and rescue, are all experienced here on the slopes of Everest, turning things on their head.

'An absorbing masterpiece .. Irish classes become more urgent for those who are unable to read it. ' - The Irish Mountain Log.
